

Wi Kuki Kaa

Wi Kuki Kaa

Born	16 December 1938
Died	19 February 2006 (aged 67) Wellington, New Zealand
Occupation	Actor

Wi Kuki Kaa (16 December 1938 – 19 February 2006) was an acclaimed New Zealand actor in film, theatre and television. He was from the Maori tribes of Ngati Porou and Ngati Kahungunu.

Biography

Kaa featured in many films, including the lead role of 'Iwi' in Ngati (1987), written by Tama Poata and directed by Barry Barclay. Kaa won the "Best Film Performance, Male" at the 1988 New Zealand Film and TV Awards for this role. He also played a lead role in the film Utu (1983) directed by Geoff Murphy.^[1] Kaa also acted as the ADR artist for the 2003 short film, Two Cars, One Night. Kaa featured in the music video Little Things by Wellington roots dub band Trinity Roots. In 2006, Kaa died in Wellington aged 67.

Filmography

Film roles

- Utu (1983), Wiremu
- The Bounty (1984), King Tynah
- Kingpin (1985), Mr Nathan
- Ngati (1987), Iwi
- Linda's Body (1990), Hemi
- Te Rau (1991), Rewi
- The Diamond of Jeru (2001), Inghai - TV film
- Turangawaewae (2002), Tiare (Koro)
- Der Liebe entgegen (2002), Henry Tufare - TV film
- River Queen (2005), Old Rangī

Unis dans la tourmente. Ennemis au paradis.

MEL GIBSON ANTHONY HOPKINS

LE BOUNTY

200 ans après, enfin la vérité

DINO De LAURENTIS PRÉSENTE
MEL GIBSON - ANTHONY HOPKINS

"LE BOUNTY" avec EDWARD FOX - LAURENCE OLIVIER
Musique composée et dirigée par VANGELIS Scénario de ROBERT BOLT
D'après le roman "CAPTAIN BLIGH AND M. CHRISTIAN" de RICHARD HOUGH
Produit par BERNARD WILLIAMS Réalisé par ROGER DONALDSON

© 1984 Dino De Laurentiis Corporation. Tous droits réservés. Distribué par L'INTERNATIONAL CINEMA INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION. Photo by Debra